

1. Title of the Project	Training Farmer in SRI and Farmer Organization in Takeo and Prey Veng Province
2. Project Purpose	Improving livelihood of small farmers through the development of farmer led and self-sustained agricultural extension, marketing and community finance services
3. Project Term	From September 01, 08 to February 28, 2010
4. Target Area	313 villages in 10 districts of Takeo and Prey Veng Provinces
5. Target Group	Subsistence rice farmer, underrepresented group (young people, woman and vulnerable family) and government official.
6. Donor	Welt Hunger Hilfe/ German Agro Action (WHH/GAA)
7. Main Activities, Expected Output, and Indicators	(Activities) <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Organizing training, exchange and advisory support for farmer representatives in collective marketing of organic agricultural product, collective buying of commodities/goods and agricultural inputs management of saving and credit services 2. Organizing training, coaching and advisory support to farmer promoter for wider dissemination of new innovation introduced by the project 3. Organizing training, coaching, exchange and advisory for representatives of farmer association on management and leadership 4. Capacity building and advisory support to agriculture extension workers (Output) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Supporting the establishment of producer organizations such as organic rice, vegetable and chicken producer groups for direct marketing through Natural Agri-Product Shop managed by CEDAC in Phnom Penh - Reinforcing the institutional development and management capacity of the member-managed farmer organizations and their networks in all target districts - Farmers are able to increase their rice production and to diversify their agricultural production, by the innovative System of Rice Intensification (SRI) and other sustainable farming practices introduced and promoted by the project - Capacity of agricultural extension workers (AEW) are enhanced and project experiences are widely shared (Indicators) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Increased rice yield and reduced expenditure on external inputs - Increased number of raised animals - Increased availability of self-produced vegetables - Increased cash income from the sale of agricultural products, especially organic rice, combined with reduced expenditure on purchased fertilizers and pesticides - Increased amount of savings mobilized by community led saving/credit services - Number and type of collective actions undertaken by farmer associations
8. Input	1 Project coordinator 1 Project officer 2 Field trainer 8 Community based field assistants