

CEDAC opens a new shop in Takhmao city, Kandal Province

A new CEDAC shop branch in Takhmao city, Kandal province officially celebrated an inauguration ceremony on November 22, 2011. The shop is located at # 379, Street 206, Sangkat Takhmao, Kandal province. It is the 13th CEDAC Shop, after eleven shops opened in Phnom Penh city and one shop in Kratie province. The new shop's owner, Mr. Bamnang said, "I could see the high demand for organic products amongst Takhmao city residents as well as Cambodian people as they always suggest to have a CEDAC shop opened nearby here." He added that "from time to time, more and more people start to be concerned about their health regarding the food they eat daily and they learn more about the benefits of organic products for their health". Moreover, Mr. Bamnang said that he is very happy to run a CEDAC shop because besides getting to provide safe food to the Cambodian consumers, the shop will also help to improve the livelihood of Cambodian farmers by selling their products at a better price. He expressed his optimism for the growth of his CEDAC shop with high social responsibilities. Mr. Bamnang is thankful to CEDAC.

CEDAC's President, Dr. Yang Saing Koma said that through CEDAC shops, the customers are beginning to recognize and value the organic products of Cambodian farmers as well as to be conscious of their own health in regards to the food they eat.

CEDAC plans to have a CEDAC shop opened in every province and some major districts through out the country by 2016.
